

Jose Wilhelm

Web Developer / Data Analyst

Highly passionate web developer. Confident building responsive user interfaces, responsive design, and single-page applications on the front-end, and web servers, REST APIs, and relational databases on the back-end. Very committed to continuous and long-term education. Great data skillset, including data cleaning, analysis, visualization, interpretation, and communication. Strong, organizational, mathematical, programming, and analytical skills. Bilingual in both Spanish and English.
